

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you, If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you but make allowance for their doubting too, If you can wait and not be tired by waiting or being lied about, don't deal in lies, Or being hated, don't give way to hating, and yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise
 If you can dream and not make dreams your master if you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
 If you can meet with triumph and disaster and treat those two imposters just the same,
 If you can bear the truth you've spoken trusted by knaves to make a trap for fools, Or watch things that you gave your life for broken and stoop and build them up with worn out tools If you can make one heap of all your winnings and ask it one turn of pitch and toss And lose and start again at your beginnings and never breathe a word about your loss If you can force your heart and nerves and renew to serve your turn long after they are gone And so hold on when there is nothing in you except the will which says to them "hold on!"
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you if all men can count with you, but not too much If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of distance run Yours is the Earth and Everything that's in it, and — which is more — you'll be a man by son.

— Rudyard Kipling —
